

ANNUAL MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

Please join AFA's 2025 Annual Meeting
Friday, October 24, 2025 • 6:00 PM Eastern

Your response is needed to reach a quorum. RSVP to vote by proxy at the link here by October 23, 2025.

AGENDA

Reception concludes

6:30 PM American Friends of Attingham, Inc. | Welcome

- I. Reports on the activities and finances of the organization
- II. The Nominating Committee has proposed the following slate of candidates to be elected to the Board of Directors by the Members:

First-Term

- Amy M. Coes SP '22, SC '24 of PA
- Jack Kilgore '24, LHC '25, RCS '25 of NY

Second Term

- Genevieve Cortinovis '14 of MO
- Adam T. Erby '16, LHC '19, RCS '22, SC '25 of VA
- Dr. Susan J. Rawles '96, RCS '98, SP '19, '22, '24, LHC '23 of VA

The Board of Directors recommends a vote IN FAVOR of the candidates.

- III. Announcement of Summer School Class of 2025 Representative, to serve a one-year term as a non-voting advisory representative to the Board
 - Alice Iglehart '25 of NY
- IV. Board of Directors Thank You and Farewells
- V. Special Resolution in honor of Beth Carver Wees

TOUR

5:00 p.m. Tour of the Tilden Mansion and National Arts Club collection
15 Gramercy Park, New York, NY 10003

In 1863 Samuel J. Tilden (1814-1886), the 25th Governor of New York, purchased two adjoining Gothic Revival style townhouses, built in the 1840s, and hired Calvert Vaux to modernize the home in the Aesthetic Movement style. The curator will speak about the architectural history of the home, which features interiors by John LaFarge, Donald MacDonald, and the firm Ellin and Kitson.

=====

RECEPTION

5:30 p.m. Reception in the Sculpture Court
15 Gramercy Park, New York, NY 10003

Simona and Ted Vassilev have graciously offered to host the American Friends of Attingham at the National Arts Club for the Annual Meeting of the Members. Ej